SPANISH DELIGHT & TRANS-ATLANTIC CRUISE

Barcelona to Ft. Lauderdale

Nov. 4-19, 2022

GREAT ADVENTURE TOURS 785-862-1080

SPANISH DELIGHT
TRANS-ATLANTIC CRUISE
14 Day Cruise
Barcelona to Ft. Lauderdale
Nov. 4-19, 2022

Experience the architectural gems of Barcelona, Malaga Seville. & Fuchal, Madeira. Unwind on a transatlantic voyage. You will follow the southern coast of Spain and visit Lisbon and the island of Madeira which has lovely gardens.

Friday, Nov. 4: We fly to Barcelona, Spain today, will arrive on the Saturday, Nov. 5th.

Saturday, Nov. 5: We board the beautiful Holland America ship, the Oosterdam this afternoon.

Sunday, Nov. 6: Cartagena, Spain has more than two millennia of history to embrace in this port city in Spain's southeastern Murcia region. While Cartagena is famously home to the second-largest Roman amphitheater on the Iberian Peninsula, the city is much more than just spectacular ancient ruins. There are striking Art Nouveau buildings, neoclassical churches and ultramodern edifices throughout the city

Monday, Nov. 7: Málaga, Spain is an Andalusian city. There is a brand-new $100 million port promenade filled with restaurants and a bold new branch of Paris's Centre Pompidou built in the form of a colorful glass cube. A handful of other major new museums include one devoted to one of the city's most famous sons, Pablo Picasso. We will pass by the Isle of Gibraltar as we leave Malaga.

Tuesday, Nov. 8: Cadiz (Seville), Spain hangs off the southwestern edge of Spain, Cádiz is one of Andalucía's regional capitals and a place bursting with personality. Europe's oldest continually inhabited city, with a history stretching back 3,000 years. Seville is an hour and a half away and tours to Seville are available.

Wednesday, Nov. 9: Lisbon, Portugal, is the capital of Portugal. It is a wealth of sights, tastes and sounds. An ensemble of neighborhoods both old and new, it's a city full of history, culture and tradition. After the devastating earthquake that struck in 1755, reconstruction began and the rebuilt Baixa area quickly became one of the city's busiest districts. From there, you can glance up at São Jorge Castle on one hill.

Thursday, Nov. 10: Day at Sea: Lots to enjoy on board, cooking show, crafts, sauna, gym activities, and what I enjoy, sitting on deck reading a book!

Friday, Nov. 11: Funchal (Madeira Island), Portugal is located on the island of Madeira. In 1419, the Portuguese navigators landed, and were convinced that they had arrived at the Garden of Eden. Today, the experience is no different for cruise passengers docking in Funchal, Madeira's largest city and the capital of a namesake autonomous region. Madeira's consistently warm weather and volcanic mountains lush with tropical flowers and gardens drew European settlers whose influence gave rise to much of what it's known for: Madeira wine, poncha (a traditional drink made of distilled sugarcane, honey and lemon) and handiwork such as embroidery.

Saturday, Nov. 12 - Friday, Nov. 18: Days at Sea: We cross the Atlantic Ocean to Ft. Lauderdale. Lots to do on board and we will slowly catch up on the time change, not even realizing it! Enjoy all the entertainment on board, the B.B. King show is amazing.

Saturday, Nov. 19: We fly home from Ft. Lauderdale back to Kansas City. A very relaxing and enjoyable cruise with fantastic prices!!
